

WORK FOR AMERICA

Mrs. John D. Hanley of Torrance, left, American History chairman of the El Redondo Chapter DAR, is served refreshments by Mrs. Orville H. La Fevers, recording secretary, after completing her many activities to promote a deeper understanding of American History. Mrs. Hanley is chairman of the essay contest being conducted in four schools.

DAR Sponsors Essay Contest on American History

El Redondo Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution is participating in making February "American History Month" and the mayors of four South Bay cities have been asked to make this proclamation.

$25 Savings Bond will be the prize for the winner of each grade level.

In 1967, more than 68,000 entries were received by the National DAR chairman.

Return to Make California Home

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Morgavo (Connie Zimmerman) and two children, Gina Marie and Philip, have returned from Elyria, Ohio, to California to make their home.

They have been visiting with Mrs. Morgavo's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Zimmerman, 1024 Cerise and are now established in Corona where Mr. Morgavo is an optician with the space division of North American Aviation.

These American History essay winners will be guests at the Feb. 16 meeting of El Redondo Chapter at 1 p.m. in the Community Room of the American Savings and Loans, 205 St. Pacific Ave.

Winning essay of each grade will be sent to the California State Society DAR, American History Essay Writing Contest and the winner of each grade will then be sent to the National DAR contest. A

Torrance Rebekahs Stage Installation

Torrance Rebekah Lodge 347 installed its new officers in colorful ceremonies at the Torrance Masonic Temple on Wednesday evening, Jan. 24.

Conducting the installation were Mrs. Patricia Lambert, district deputy president of District 98 and a member of the Del Mar Lodge in Long Beach, and Mrs. Mary DuBau, district deputy marshal, also of the Del Mar Club.

New officers, wearing deep pink gowns and carrying silver roses and large hoops, endowed with their duties, were Mmes Clara Conner, noble grand; Lucille Taute, junior past noble grand; Grace Powers, recording secretary; Thelma Thorpe, financial secretary; and Glada Yost, treasurer.

Appointees assuming office were Mmes Pauline Greer, warden; Myra Snow, conductor; Pauline Smart, chaplain; Susie Walker, musician; Eve Goedell, color bearer.

Distinguished visitor present was Mrs. Elizabeth Wash, past president of the Rebekah Lodge and a member of the Wide-Awake Lodge in Long Beach. Representatives from the Downey and Norwalk lodges, as well as others from the district, were in attendance.

A reception followed with Mrs. Lucille Taute and her committee serving from tables decorated in green and white.

Warnocks Move From Torrance

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Warnock, who have been residents of Torrance for the past 17 years, left Friday morning for Weaverville, Calif., near Redding, to make their home. The Warnocks sold their home at 3241 Opal St. last July and have been living at 21016 Amie while their new home at Weaverville was being built.

Mr. Warnock retired last week from North American Aviation. Mrs. Warnock has been an active member of the Torrance Woman's Club during her residence here and has been a member of two bridge clubs.

Last Monday, she was honored at a surprise farewell luncheon at the Plush Horse restaurant. On hand to bid her farewell were 48 members of the Woman's Club and her bridge clubs. Mrs. Warnock was presented with a gift from the group.

Among the guests attending was a former Torrance resident, Mrs. J. G. Laird of El Monte.
